BOWFIRE is BACK for ONE NIGHT ONLY, MAY 11

Tulsa, OK. The string performance ensemble BOWFIRE performs on May 11, 7:30 p.m. at the Tulsa Performing Arts Center as part of its North American tour, presented by Live Nation. From the traditional fiddle and violin to the exotic Chinese erhu, BOWFIRE has impressed audiences worldwide since forming in 2000. BOWFIRE's world-renowned musicians take audiences on a journey that moves seamlessly from jazz to Classical to bluegrass to celtic to rock to world music. The unique combination of master musicians, choreography and vocals is complemented by elaborate costumes and set design.

BOWFIRE delivers an incredible live show thanks to the creative team behind the ensemble. Lenny Solomon, BOWFIRE's founder and artistic director, has built a strong reputation as one of the world's most skilled and innovative jazz violinists. "We have a show of show-stoppers," Solomon told INTERMISSION magazine. "People love the whole package — ... the great virtuosity we generate, the entertainment value. This is a show that really shouldn't be missed. Culturally, it's a great experience. For newcomers to concerts, this is a great introduction. For everyone else, it's just generally a great show."

For tickets, call 596-7111, purchase at the PAC ticket office or online at MyTicketOffice.com.
