The People of Topéca Coffee

Photographs by Jeremy Charles

March 25 – April 27

Tulsa, OK Photographer Jeremy Charles looks closely at the people of Topéca Coffee, a farm nestled on the slopes of the Santa Ana volcano in El Salvador. A family-owned business for over 150 years, Topéca grows, roasts and sells its own specialty coffee.

Charles is a Tulsa-based professional photographer and graphic designer. Well known for his portraits of artists and musicians such as Hanson, Red Dirt Rangers, P.D.A. and Jacob Fred Jazz Odyssey, Charles applies a bold contemporary style to editorial portraiture, architecture, and documentary work for a worldwide clientele. His photos appear regularly in regional and national publications such as Runner's World, Forbes, Oklahoma Today and Wichita Magazine.

The People of Topéca Coffee will be on display in the PAC Gallery from March 25 through April 27. There will be an opening reception on Monday, April 5, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Light hors d'oeuvres, wine and Topéca Coffee will be served.

The PAC Gallery, located at 3rd and Cincinnati, is open M-F from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and during Chapman Music Hall events. Gallery admission is free.

The Tulsa Performing Arts Center is a department of the City of Tulsa.
